

communication materials

picture card

Join your power with the power of others
who are experiencing or confronting violence & HIV/AIDS.

support

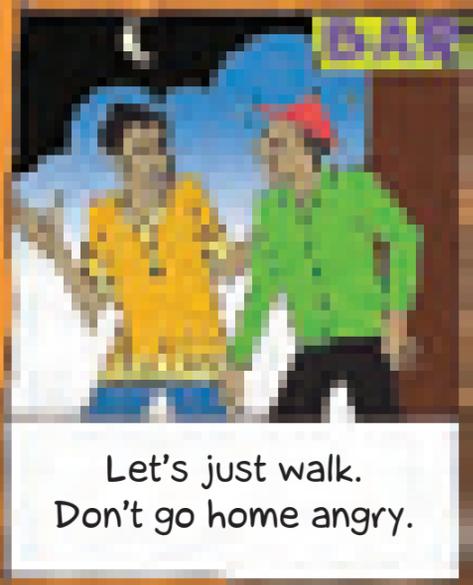

Discussion Questions

1. Why do you think it is important to support people experiencing violence and HIV/AIDS?
2. How are men being supported in the poster? Do you think this support is important? What are other ways we could support men?
3. How are girls and women being supported in the poster? How else could we support girls and women living with violence and/or HIV/AIDS?
4. This poster shows many situations in which people are providing support. Which examples of support do you do?
5. Which examples of support do you think are the hardest or that people feel most reluctant to do? Why?
6. What is the opposite of support? How do shame and stigma hurt us?
7. What are the consequences of not supporting women and men living with violence and/or HIV/AIDS?
8. Why do you think people reaching out and speaking out about violence and HIV/AIDS also need support?
9. Many examples of support in this poster seem very small and not important. Do you think they can make a difference?
10. In what ways can you join your power with others' to give support?

I believe you can change.

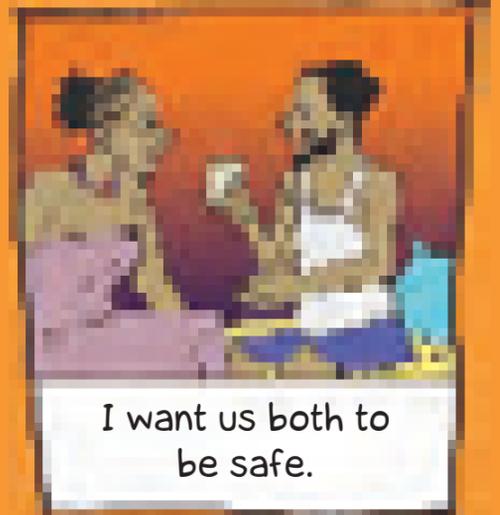

Let's just walk. Don't go home angry.

It is not your fault. What he did was wrong.

We help couples solve problems peacefully.

I want us both to be safe.

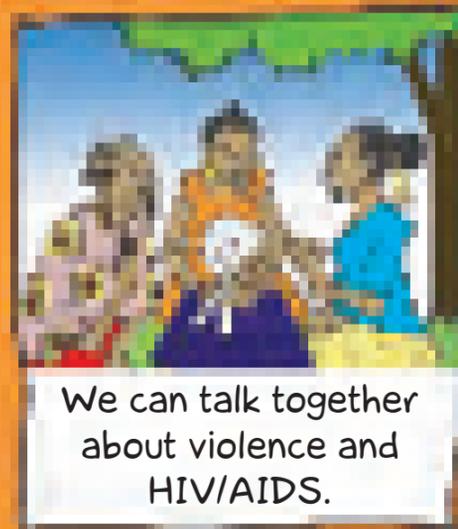

We are here to help. We will treat your case seriously.

She's young. Let's talk about this.

We will come over if we hear violence.

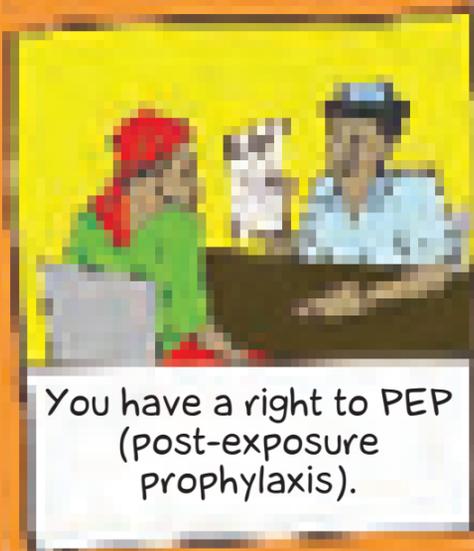

We can talk together about violence and HIV/AIDS.

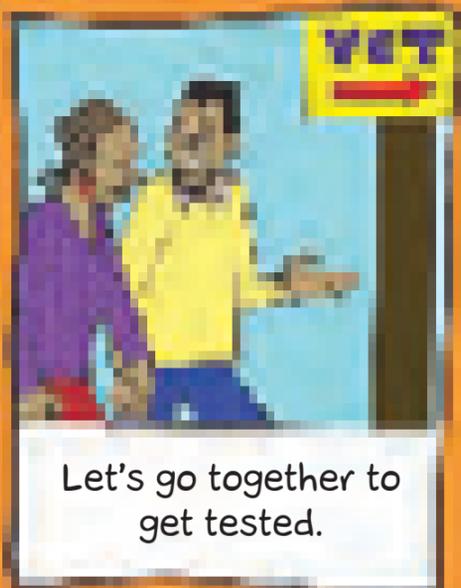

I will be with you when you tell him the results.

You can stay with us for a while.

You have a right to PEP (post-exposure prophylaxis).

Let's go together to get tested.

I believe you.

give support!

