

Job Description

Job Title:	Graphic Design Intern
Department:	Organization-wide
Supervised by:	Administrator
Place of work:	This position can be full or part-time, based in Kampala or working remotely. Length of time for the internship is between 3 and 8 months.
Supervisees:	n/a
Job Role
Role Overview:	The Graphic Design Intern will support our team on a variety of creative projects working to prevent violence against women and children.

Key Result Areas	Duties and Responsibilities
Graphic Design	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop design concepts for print and electronic publications. • Complete the lay out and formatting of print and electronic publications. • Develop tiles for social media. • Produce design templates for PPTs. • Strengthen the visual identity of Raising Voices through contributing to strategic discussions and organizational strategy.

Person Specification
Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BA in graphic design. • Experience working on social justice issues, feminism, children’s rights a plus.
Essential Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Able to work in English. • A very keen eye for attention to detail. • Interest in working with a diverse team. • Open and direct communication, willing to take feedback and work collaboratively. • Competent in using Photoshop, Adobe Design Suite • Knowledge of Word Press a plus

Remuneration

All interns at Raising Voices receive a competitive stipend.

Application Instructions

Please submit a) a thoughtful cover letter; b) your CV that includes links to past work/your portfolio; and c) a one-page writing sample about why you are interested in using your design skills to promote social justice including what special skills or qualities you would bring to Raising Voices.

Rolling deadline until filled.