

What is a

GOOD SCHOOL?

A COMPANION FOR TEACHERS
AND STUDENTS

Many people are now asking what kinds of schools do we have?

Are they serving our children?
Are they places that open our children's minds or close them?

Are you thinking about these questions?

Is your school a Good School?

A GOOD SCHOOL has:

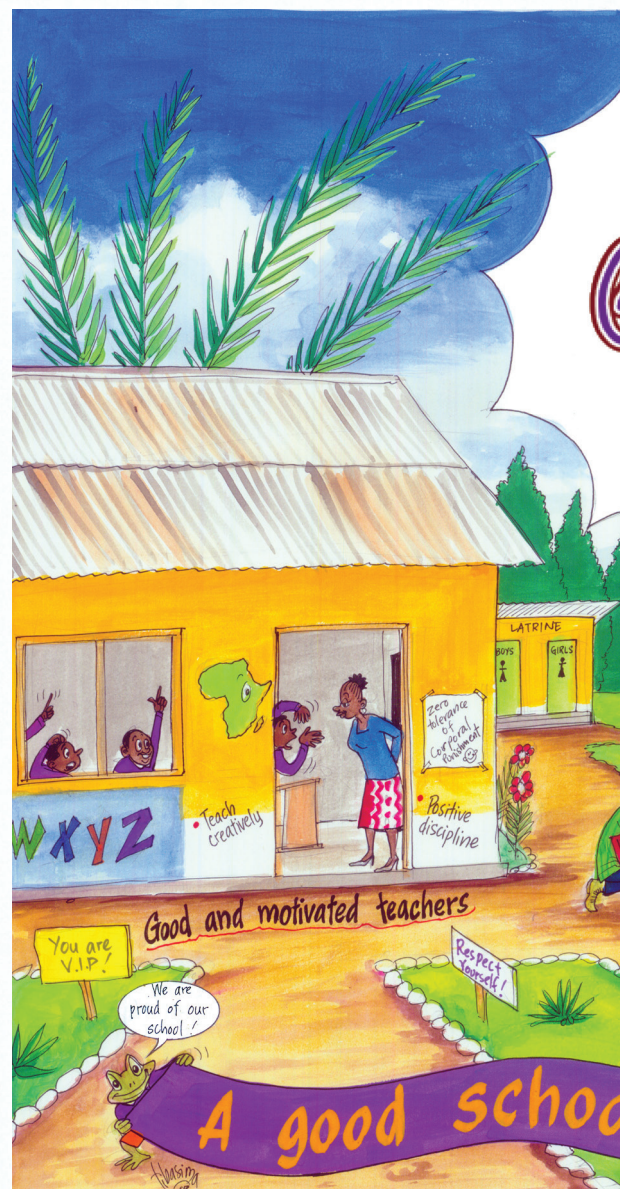

- a) Good and motivated teachers
- b) A good learning environment
- c) A transparent and Accountable Administration

It is where everyone takes responsibility for influencing what happens at this school.

Even students are given opportunities to contribute their ideas!

Where everyone is proud of their school!

Where teachers don't just teach but educate!

A Good School doesn't happen by chance. It is created by people who care and are committed to improve everyone's experience of education.

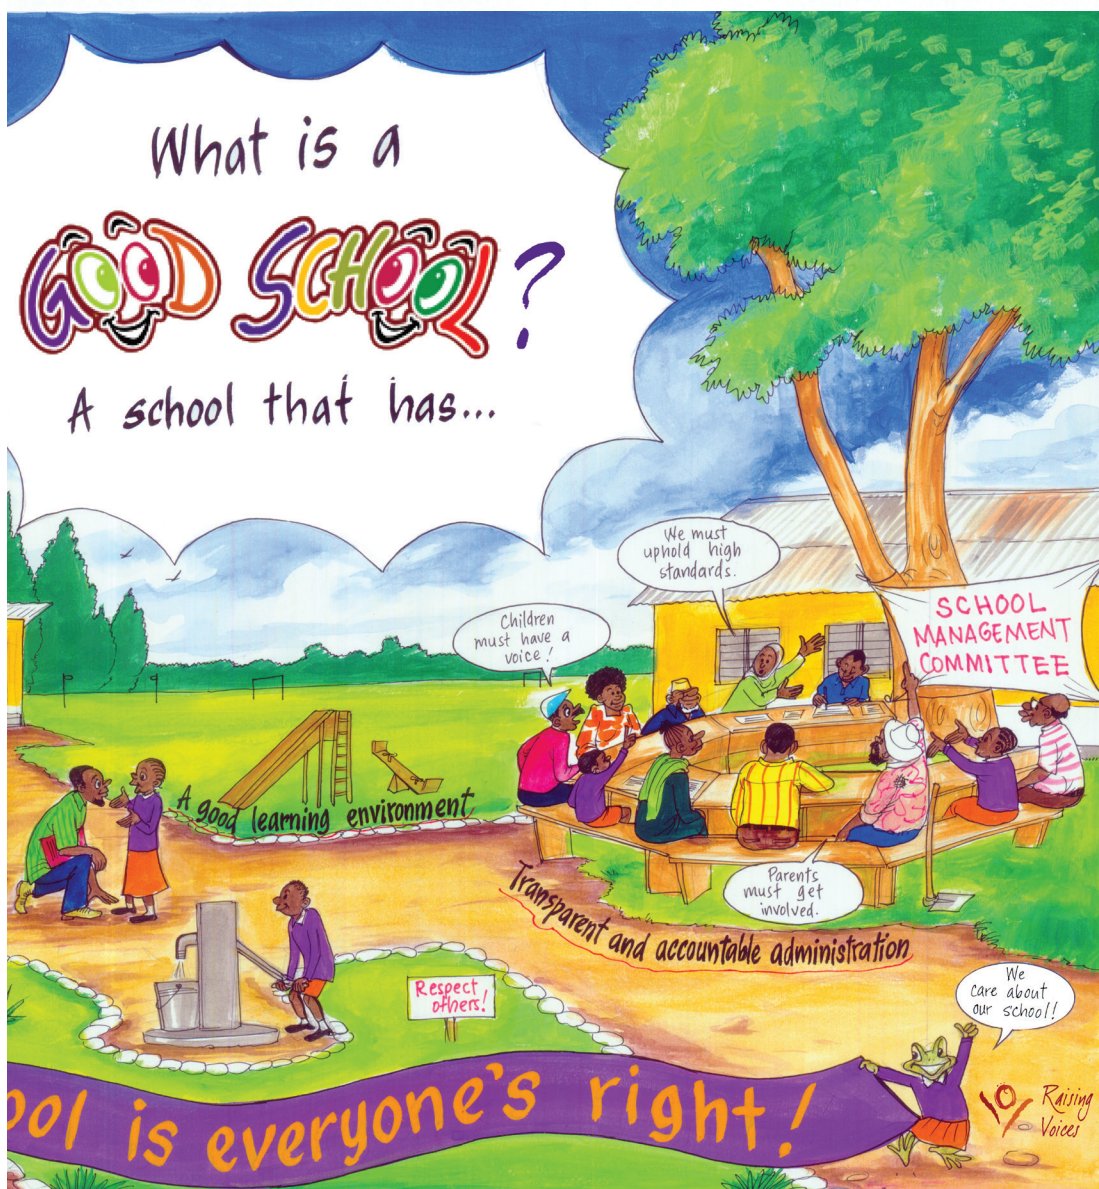

Think about this...

How would your life be different if you had been lucky enough to go to a Good School?

What is a

GOOD SCHOOL?

A school that has...

It is a place I will remember long after I am finished with school!

A Good School creates an environment where individuals can dream big dreams and learn the skills to make them real!

A GOOD SCHOOL has go

What is a good teacher?

They show more care and never use the cane!

They help their students learn thinking skills.

Good teachers are creative. They see things in a different way!

4.

They role-model ethical behaviour and teach values to students.

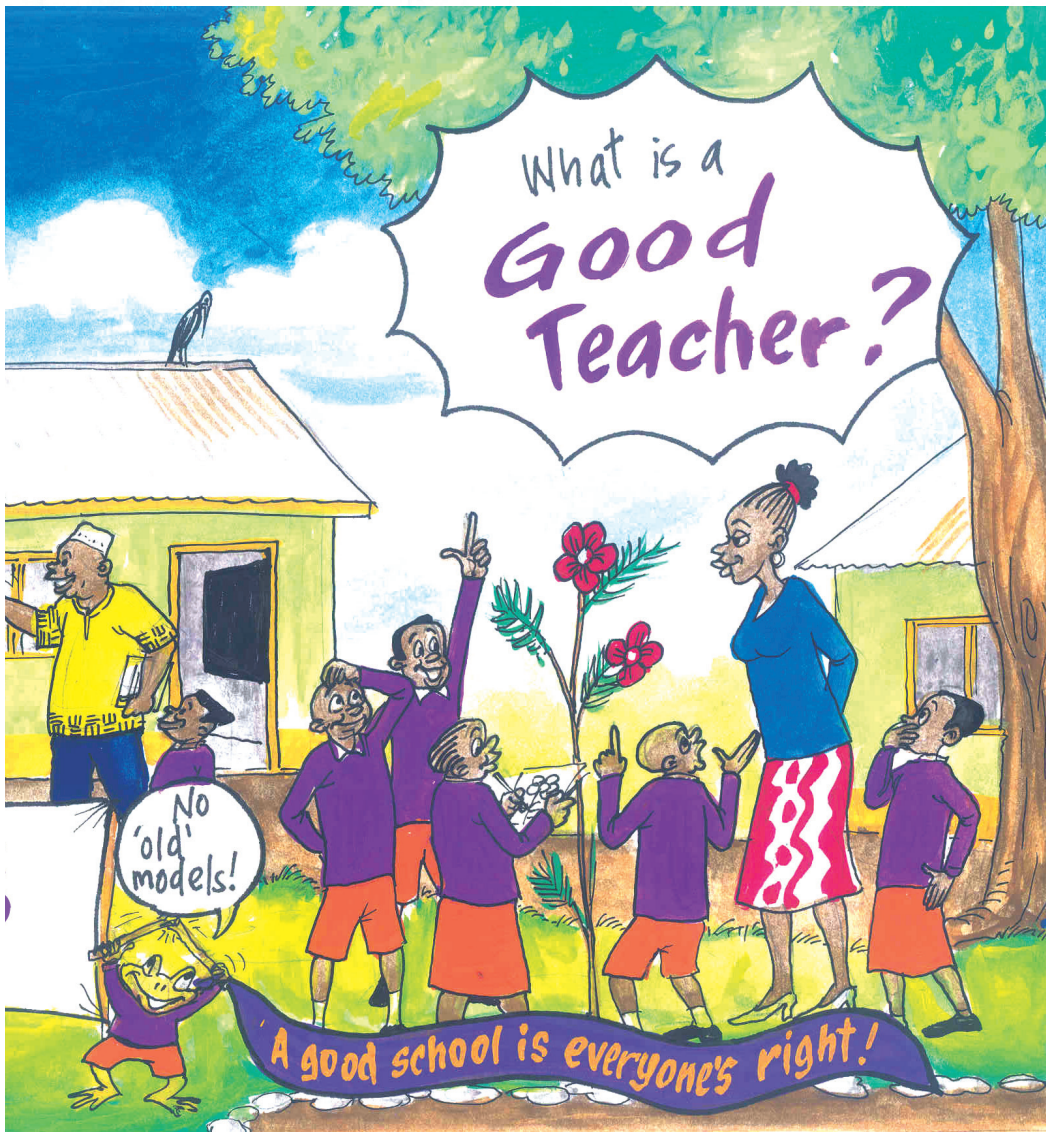

Good teachers

Good teachers are creative, ethical and skilled. They strive to be role models for their students.

Think about this...

Would your experience of school be different if you were lucky enough to have had a good teacher?

A good teacher invests in the long-term development of the child rather than just short-term obedience.

A good teacher opens my mind and helps me dream big dreams!

Can anyone become a

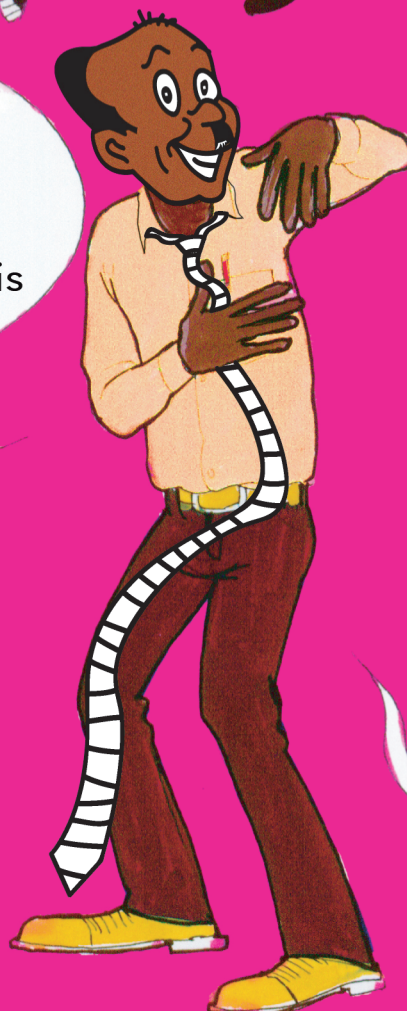

What can a good school do to help their teachers become good teachers?

If our school doesn't value our teachers, how will our teachers value us?

Even teachers need guidelines and an environment at school that shows them what is acceptable behaviour.

Give respect, get respect!

What is a good learning environment?

Where the school compound is kept clean and orderly.

Where classrooms have colours and are not falling apart.

Where the latrines are clean and there is access to water.

Don't forget trees and a fence!

Where there is an open field where students can play!

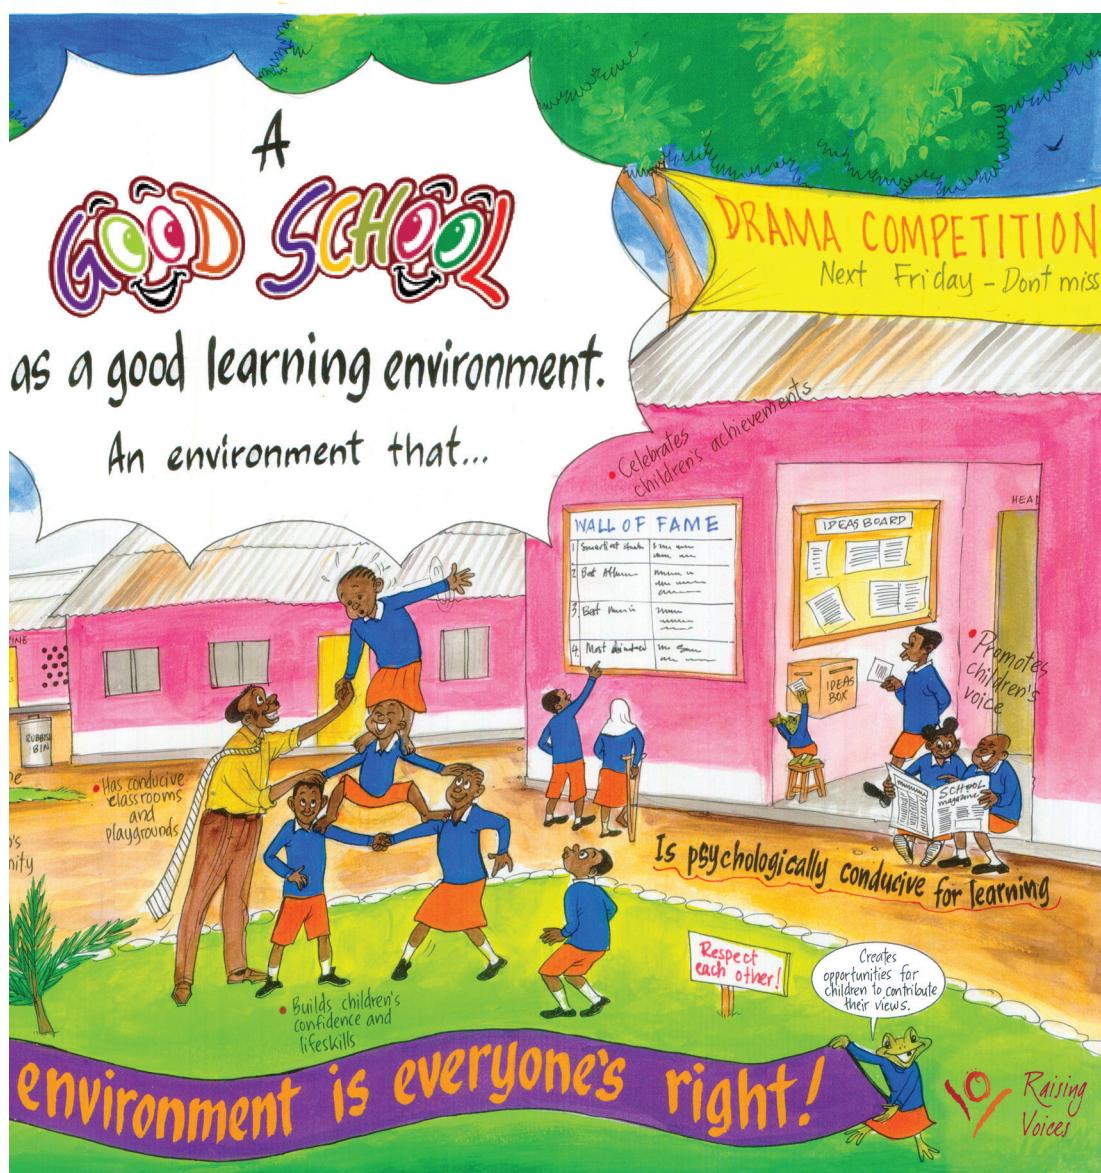

Good learning environment

A good learning environment is when everyone feels that their physical space has order and respects their dignity

Think about this...

Do you think your physical environment affects how you feel and learn?

If my school doesn't look good, clean and orderly, how will I learn to value these things?

A Good School shows its values in its environment.

What else is part of the school?

What about the psychological environment at your school?

At a envi
phys

It means children are not humiliated but nurtured and encouraged to grow.

Where everyone feels safe enough to be creative and explore ideas.

Where the school encourages everyone to become active participants.

Throw away the stick for good!

And where everyone feels their views and ideas matter to the school.

A Good School

We have a voice!

is your school

School's environment?

In a Good School, the psychological environment is just as important as the physical environment.

Think about this...

Does your school value new ideas?
Does it create opportunities for everyone to explore what they think and feel?

Our school has a healthy environment!

Our school is violence-free!

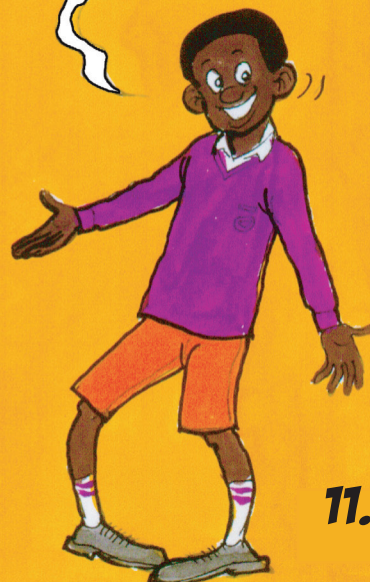

Girls and boys are valued equally!

Our compound is clean!

And safe!

If my school values me, who can convince me that I am not valuable?

A Good School creates an environment where all its members can realize their potential.

What is an accountable and transparent administration?

It means the school has a clear vision of what it wants to achieve.

Encourages all stakeholders to participate in making decisions about the school!

It has fair policies that are written down and consistently enforced.

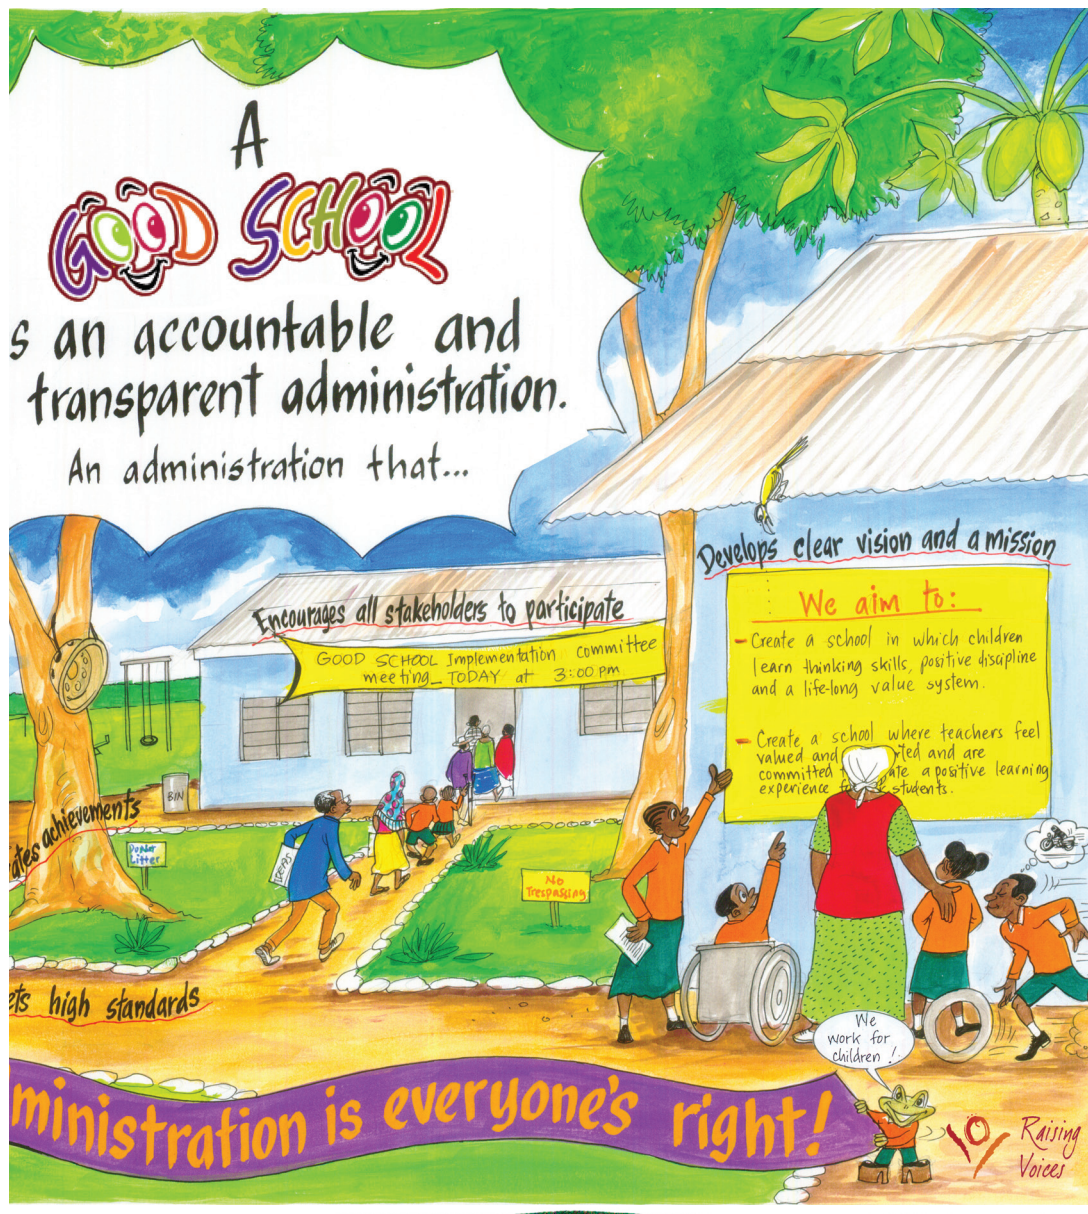

ntable administration

This means the administration is willing to explain and justify to all the stakeholders how the school is run.

Think about this...

How would our country be different if we all learned how to be accountable and transparent at our school?

Everyone understands what is expected from them, what they can expect from the school and why!

Monitors progress and celebrates achievements!

A school that has:

Good and motivated teachers.

A good physical and psychological environment.

An accountable and transparent administration.

is a GOOD SCHOOL!
