

SASA! Together Capacity Grid

	Type of Community
	Densely Populated	Sparsely Populated	Barely Populated
Description	Communities where residents live in close proximity and it's possible to walk around the community and interact with many people within a short period of time; there is a community center or market easily accessible by walking (within 30 minutes)	Communities where residential areas are more spread out and residents could reach the community center within a 1-hour walk	Communities where small groups of residents and/or families live more than an hour's walk from the next small group; there may be no discernible community center
Community Activist-to-Population Ratio	One community activist for approximately 1,500 community members	One community activist for approximately 800 community members	One community activist for approximately 500 community members
Staff-to-Community Activist Ratio	One staff member for approximately 25 to 30 community activists	One staff member for approximately 20 to 25 community activists	One staff member for approximately 15 to 20 community activists
Staff-to-Community Leader Ratio	One staff member for approximately 40 to 50 community leaders	One staff member for approximately 30 to 40 community leaders	One staff member for approximately 20 to 30 community leaders
Staff-to-Institution Ratio	One staff member for up to 2 institutions, each with 4 to 6 institutional allies	One staff member for up to 2 institutions, each with 4 to 6 institutional allies	One staff member for 1 institution, with 4 to 6 institutional allies